

USER SPECIFICATIONS::

- Customers will be able to register and create accounts with their personal information and credentials.
- Freelancers also have customizable profiles where they can add personal details, skills, portfolios, and work history.
- Customers will be able to view various freelancers' job listings with detailed descriptions, capabilities & skillset, budget, and ratings.
- Customers will also be able to review proposals, negotiate terms, and select freelancers.
- Clients will be allowed to make payments & freelancers will receive payments securely.
- Customers are able to leave reviews and ratings for the freelancers after project completion.
- Users have access to terms of service, privacy policy, and other relevant legal documents.
- Platform will also offer user support channels, such as FAQs, help documentation, and customer support contact options.

